MINUTE WITH THE MAYOR

As I started thinking about the messages I wanted to share in this final newsletter of 2025, I found it difficult to narrow down my list. There's so much happening in La Vista that it's hard to choose just a few highlights!

One thing is certain, I want to start by sending out a well-deserved "Congratulations" to the Public Works Department for their recent accreditation from the American Public Works Association (APWA). This is quite an accomplishment. A team of employees worked behind the scenes for 18 months to help La Vista achieve APWA accreditation. You can read about their efforts and the evaluation process on page 10 of this Viewpoints newsletter. I'm incredibly proud of our team and the fact that La Vista Public Works is one of only two departments in Nebraska to earn accreditation. This speaks volumes about the professionalism of our staff.

I also want to highlight the progress that has been made on Reflections Plaza in Central Park East. As you may recall, this project was inspired by our late Councilman Mike Crawford and his vision to create a peaceful place for residents to enjoy. While there's still some work to come, I know Mike would be pleased by this first phase of the project. I urge you to stop by and see the striking fire and water feature, the newly relocated Blue Star Memorial and the sitting area. There's a photo of Reflections Plaza on page 4 of this newsletter.

Another major project that is just getting underway is the 84th Street Trail Project. Due to the scope, this project will continue into the early part of 2027. It involves constructing a new bridge on 84th Street and improving walkability with new, wider trails along both sides of 84th Street. While there will undoubtedly be some traffic disruptions that go along with this project, it will ultimately allow us to create a connection between Central Park and Central Park West. This will be extremely valuable as we continue with new development on the west side of the 84th Street Corridor.

My last message is about the festive holiday events and programs that will be happening soon in La Vista. From the Tree Lighting to the Winter Market to Santa visits at the Workshop, there are plenty of opportunities for families, friends and neighbors to enjoy spending time with one another. I invite you to read about the events in this newsletter and then come celebrate with us.

I wish you and yours a happy and healthy holiday season.

MAYOR Douglas Kindig

84th Street Trail Project

Big Changes Coming to 84th Street

The much anticipated 84th Street Trail Project kicked off this fall in La Vista. This project is the next phase in the redevelopment of the 84th Street Corridor and is the result of years of planning. It involves:

- Constructing a bridge over the Thompson Creek channel with an underpass that will allow the City to create a trail connection between Central Park and Central Park West.
- Creating 10-foot-wide trails to replace the four-foot sidewalks that run along either side of 84th Street from Giles Road to Harrison Street. The new trails will be positioned farther away from the road – improving pedestrian safety.
- Improving the drainage along 84th Street.

The first step in this major construction project was to remove several of the trees in the right of way along 84th Street between Giles Road and Harrison Street. This was necessary to create space to widen the walking trails on both sides of the roadway and move them further away from the street. New trees and plantings along the corridor are anticipated in a future phase.

Next comes the lengthy process of building the bridge over the creek channel. This is where drivers will begin noticing some impact on traffic. As crews work to remove the existing street, drive bridge foundation piles into the ground, build a retaining wall, set the superstructure and complete construction of the bridge, traffic will be reduced to one lane in each direction. This will allow crews to complete one side of the bridge (while traffic remains open on the other side) and then move traffic to the completed side while the other side of the bridge is constructed.

Drivers should expect that 84th Street will be limited to one-lane in each direction from near Park View Boulevard to City Centre Drive into the early part of 2027. As with any road construction project, the timeline is weather dependent and could vary slightly.

It's long been the City's vision that the areas along the east and west of the 84th Street Corridor would be connected by a pedestrian trail. By building a bridge and underpass, the City will be able to establish a connection between Central Park and Central Park West in the future. This will make it easier and safer to travel from one side of 84th Street to the other without driving.

The project's total cost—including planning, design, and construction—is $12.2 million. The City successfully secured a $5 million federal grant to help fund the project, covering close to half of the total cost. As a result, the City's share was reduced to $7.2 million. That portion is being paid for by the half cent sales tax voters approved in 2014 for 84th Street redevelopment.

Find more information about the 84th Street Trail Project at CityofLaVista.org/84thTrail and follow along for progress updates.

84th Street Trail Project Highlights

- Projected timeline: Fall 2025 through Spring 2027
- Involves constructing the 84th Street bridge and moving/widening the trails adjacent to 84th Street
- Federal $5 million grant secured to help fund the project

Reflections Plaza

A peaceful new community space is taking shape in Central Park East. Reflections Plaza, a project inspired by late La Vista Councilmember Mike Crawford, sits just off Park View Boulevard in the park. It offers a serene and welcoming haven for families and individuals wanting to pause for a moment of calm and remembrance.

Councilmember Crawford's vision was to create a space that honors the courage and sacrifice of veterans and first responders. Reflections Plaza fulfills that dream.

The plaza is the new home to the City's Blue Star Memorial—which was recently relocated from outside City Hall. Come May, the City will celebrate Memorial Day by hosting its annual Hometown Hero's celebration at Reflections Plaza. The space will be the perfect setting for this powerful and moving event.

Reflections Plaza is not only a tranquil place to pay tribute to those who have served, it's also an area of comfort for all members of the community who wish to honor loved ones, reflect on their memories or simply find a quiet moment away from the rush of daily life.

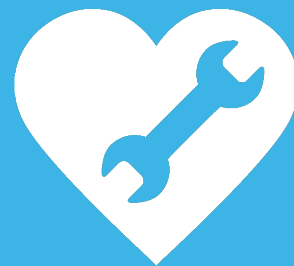

The plaza features a beautiful water feature with an eternal flame, flagpoles, thoughtfully planned seating and gentle landscaping. The City would like to thank the Crawford family and the La Vista Community Foundation for their involvement in the project.

Visit CityofLaVista.org/WelcomeSanta to see a route map. Santa will be in neighborhoods west of 84th Street approximately 1-3 p.m. He'll travel east of 84th Street around 3-5 p.m.

Download the Glympse app or use the QR code to track Santa.

The app will update to show the approximate location of Santa's sleigh as it travels through neighborhoods.

PUBLIC WORKS ZONE

9900 Portal Rd | 402.331.8927 | PublicWorks@CityofLaVista.org | CityofLaVista.org/PublicWorks

La Vista Public Works Hours: Monday-Friday: 7 a.m.-3:30 p.m. Saturday-Sunday: Closed

Leading the Way: La Vista Public Works among first in Nebraska Accredited by American Public Works Association

Public Works recently completed the rigorous process of earning accreditation from the American Public Works Association (APWA). The APWA awards accreditation to departments across the U.S. that meet the highest operating and management standards for public works systems and services.

In August, after 18 months of working toward its goal, La Vista officially learned that it earned full accreditation. Public Works was formally recognized and presented certification at a City Council meeting in October.

The APWA estimates there are more than 20,000 public works agencies across North America. In the U.S., just 223 agencies have achieved accreditation.

Only one other public works department in Nebraska (the City of Lincoln) has earned this status, proving La Vista Public Works is ahead of the curve and a leader in their profession.

La Vista wanted to pursue accreditation to benchmark its work against other agencies. The process helped staff identify weaknesses and make improvements that will increase efficiency and service to residents.

Demonstrating compliance with APWA's standards took contributions from employees across La Vista's Public Works Department. Twenty staff members worked to formalize 355 standard operating procedures, submit 8,000 documents for review and ensure the department passed a 3-day on-site review with APWA evaluators. It was a huge undertaking and remarkable team effort.

La Vista's current accreditation is valid for four years. Public Works can then seek re-accreditation to support its ongoing commitment to improvement.

Leaf collection available at Public Works throughout November

The La Vista Public Works Department is offering a leaf collection dumpster through November 30.

La Vista residents are welcome to drop off leaves, yard waste and small branches in the dumpster Monday-Friday, 7 a.m.-3 p.m. (Please do not put plastic bags in the dumpster.) The dumpster is located outside on the east side of the Public Works building at 9900 Portal Rd.

A look at the Community Center's Game Room refresh

The Community Center offers multiple spaces for people of all ages to gather, socialize and play together. The game room is one such space at the heart of the Center - and it recently got a makeover.

Bright new overhead lighting, a couch and chairs that offer flexible seating, new children's toys and fresh paint on the walls are a few of the upgrades that have helped transform the game room.

"La Vista residents had been sharing in recent years that the game room didn't feel as comfortable and inviting as they'd like," said Heather Buller, Recreation Director. "The existing furniture—which was years and years old—was partly to blame."

The Recreation Department listened to community feedback and purchased brightly colored, cushioned furniture for the game room that is more conducive to lounging, studying and hanging out with others.

"The new furniture is more comfortable and offers better seating options for those wanting to relax and spend time in the space," Buller said. "It's a much more inviting room for doing homework after school, meeting up with friends for a game of ping-pong or bringing your family to play board games."

The New and Improved Game Room...

- Is available for all La Vista residents to use at no cost during the Community Center's regular hours of operation.
- Is stocked with board games/activities.
- Continues to feature ping pong, pool and foosball tables.
- Offers outlets for charging phones, laptops and other devices.
- Is a safe space for youth and teens to gather and socialize.

The Recreation Department invites you to drop by and enjoy your game room soon!

Staying in Balance: Seniors Move Toward Wellness with Tai Chi

Practicing tai chi offers numerous health benefits, particularly for older adults. Margaret Noll is well-versed in those benefits. She has been practicing and teaching tai chi for nearly 20 years. She currently teaches classes for the Senior Program at the La Vista Community Center.

Margaret first began studying tai chi while working at a healthcare rehabilitation center. As she learned more about tai chi's positive impact on balance and coordination, and how it helps prevent falls among older adults, she was hooked. Today, she's as passionate as ever about helping people use tai chi to improve their health and well-being.

"Research shows that practicing Tai Chi twice a week for 12 weeks can significantly decrease the odds of falling in older adults," said Margaret. "Tai chi also improves strength, flexibility, posture breathing and it helps with stress and relaxation. It's good for blood flow, blood pressure, digestion, sleep and mental health, too."

Tai chi is a form of exercise rooted in Chinese martial art. It consists of mindful breathing and slow, deliberate movements designed to get energy flowing through different organs. The low-impact movements increase muscle control and body awareness.

There are different tai chi forms, and the classes Margaret leads focus on eight basic movements. The moves are gentle and adaptable, making it easy for people of various levels of fitness and mobility to follow along.

"You can do these moves standing or sitting in a chair or wheelchair," said Margaret. "If you want to sit and only practice the breathing, you can still join in and benefit from the class. The key is that you never do any moves that hurt."

The Senior tai chi classes are offered Tuesday and Thursday mornings at 10:45 a.m. No experience is needed. There is a suggested contribution of 50 cents per class. Classes are flexible and open to drop-ins—so participants can show up whenever they're available.

First-timers can expect a relaxing environment, calming music and possibly a few jokes from Margaret.

"It's fun," said Margaret. "Just keep moving and you will improve."

Police Department Now Has a Designated Crime Analyst

The La Vista Police Department is pleased to share that it added a Crime Analyst to its ranks. Stacy Corbit, a longtime employee of the department, began serving as La Vista's first Criminal Intelligence Analyst in October. Corbit's move into this role marks a significant step forward for the department—expanding its ability to identify and proactively respond to crime trends.

Corbit has worked for La Vista Police for 20 years, most recently as an Administrative Specialist for the Criminal Investigations Bureau. This year, she participated in a program through Cal State Fullerton to earn her Crime Analyst Certification. It required her to complete a 400-hour internship and attend eight hours of online classes each Saturday and Sunday for six months.

"The program covered seven different areas of crime analysis," Corbit said. "It focused on topics such as learning to recognize crime series and patterns, and reporting on criminal statistics."

Corbit was eager to pursue training and transition into her new role.

"I've always had an interest in figuring out the 'why' behind crimes and getting down to the root causes," said Corbit. "Now, I will be able to apply my training to identify patterns and people that will help officers further their investigations."

Corbit is determined to use her knowledge and abilities to help make La Vista as safe as possible. It's personal. She was raised in La Vista and her father served as a La Vista Police Sergeant before retiring.

"I want to help build an even greater relationship between the community and the police department," Corbit said. "This is my home. I'm excited to be able to use my training and knowledge to make La Vista a safe place to live, work and play."

Coffee with a Cop

The La Vista and Papillion Police Departments joined together this fall for a friendly morning of community engagement during "Coffee with a Cop" at Coffee Society Café.

Community members were able to ask questions, voice concerns and simply get to know some of the officers who serve their neighborhoods.

Thank you to those who joined us at the event.

Winter Parking Reminders

The City may issue snow emergencies this winter when seasonal storms hit our area. Please pay close attention to posted street signs and the City's snow emergency declarations during storms.

The City and Police Department share detailed information on their social media channels, as well as on the City's website whenever a snow emergency is issued. Checking these places will help you stay informed so you can avoid being ticketed.

During winter storms, a primary goal is to ensure multiple fire trucks, ambulances and patrol vehicles can access your neighborhood safely in the unfortunate event of an emergency.

The Police Department makes every effort to avoid ticketing and towing vehicles, but quick action is needed at times to avoid serious traffic issues. Contact our non-emergency line at 402.593.4111 if you have questions about a parking decision.

Safe Winter Driving

The Police Department wants all residents and visitors to stay safe on the roads this winter.

We ask you to follow these safety tips:

- Slow down when there is a potential for slick roads and give yourself extra time to arrive at your destination.
- Increase following distance. A common traffic citation issued in crashes is for following too closely. Keep at least a 4-5 second gap between you and the car you are following.
- Clear snow and debris from your vehicle before you drive. In snowy weather, it's common to see vehicles on the road with minimal to no visibility through windows and mirrors. Not only is this dangerous for the driver, but snow left on a vehicle can cause visibility issues for other drivers as it blows off.
- Consider carrying an emergency kit with clothing, water, snacks and jumper cables jump box. If you are delayed or stranded, these items may be needed to make it through a difficult situation.
- Don't drive impaired. The holidays are for gathering and spending time with friends and family. Alcohol is often a big part of celebrations, so please be responsible, get a ride home or have a designated driver.

January 9 is National Law Enforcement Appreciation Day.

This day offers an opportunity to show thanks to the dedicated individuals who work hard and make sacrifices to keep their community safe.
