Brian Lukasiewicz, Public Works Parks Superintendent

Lukasiewicz discussed what the Parks Dept. is working on as the spring season nears.

- Centennial Park in Val Verde the playground surface was resurfaced last fall.
- The ball fields are getting prepared for the Spring/Summer sports teams.
- All playgrounds in the city parks are being inspected and minor repairs are being done.
- The City has applied for two grants for trees for the Thompson Creed corridor. These trees would be planted from the Champion Park on Park View Blvd. back to 72nd Street.
- The department is busy getting the Sports Complex ready for the Easter Egg Hunt, and the Quidditch tournament coming on the following weekend. The bathrooms are being painted, water will be on and the crosswalks & parking will be ready.
- Mulch is being placed at Central Park, and the bathrooms are getting cleaned up and water turned on.
- Earth Day, Sunday April 22 we will have volunteers at Central Park to help clean up the park after the winter.
- The seasonal Parks help will begin in April. A former seasonal Parks employee, Woody, is now working building maintenance at the Community Center. He replaces Ken Mynster who retired last fall.

Chairperson Lodes asked Lukasiewicz if most items in the Community Center are original. Lukasiewicz said yes, and they are working on and replacing items a little at a time, starting with the roof. The scoreboards have been fixed and updated. Items in the kitchen have been replaced such as the refrigerator and the disposal.

Scott Stopak, Recreation Director

Stopak told the Board that we are currently working on the budget for Recreation, Special Services Bus and Pool budgets for the years 2018-19 and 2019-20.

Stopak said we are looking into doing some remodeling in the Community Center, such as paint, blinds, etc.

The third public Streetscapes meeting was held today, March 21 on the 84th street revision. This is the final meeting for the 1st phase of the revision.
