Residents Invited to Look Out La Vista Public Kick-Off

The public kick-off of the City of La Vista's Comprehensive Plan project, Look Out La Vista, will take place Monday, March 30, at 7 p.m. at the La Vista Conference Center.

The event will feature Peter Kageyama, an internationally recognized author (For the Love of Cities and Love Where You Live) and expert on community development and grassroots engagement.

Mr. Kageyama will help residents explore questions such as, "What makes cities lovable?", "Why do we connect emotionally with some places and not others?" and "Why does that matter?"

The entertaining and enthusiastic presentation will inspire residents to think creatively about La Vista, why they love to live here and what they can do to improve and maximize their connection to La Vista.

The public kick-off event is the first of many opportunities for La Vista residents to give their ideas and feedback as part of Look Out La Vista.
